

I am in total support of the do not call list. Telemarketers should not be able to overrule what consumers want. If our name is on the list, please do not contact.